

Marooned in Minnesota? Warm up with reggae

Mike LaBriola (pictured) and the Maroons, the Twin Cities trio named for African slaves marooned when slave ships ran aground in the Caribbean Islands, will play calypso and reggae music using steel pans, conga drums, bass and guitars at 6:15 and 7:30 p.m. Friday at the St. Anthony Park Library, 2245 Como Av., St. Paul. Tickets are $4 to $6. Call 646-5266.