

Landmark Center is the place for families to go for free concerts and educational programs on Sunday afternoons. The Maroons, the popular Twin Cities calypso and reggae band shown here, will perform at 2 p.m. today to kick off the seventh season of "Sundays at Landmark." Other offerings include a program of piano music and stories by Elaine Klassen at 2 p.m. next Sunday and a performance by the Canon Choir of Brass Oct. 19. The series runs through December at 75 W. 5th St., St. Paul. For more information call 292-3225.
